

Occupy Wall Street - End Game

Many of us have been watching and taking part in the OWS movement around the world. Some of us looked at this and pondered how could something of this magnitude sustain itself for so long and come out of the blue like it did without really generating any concerns via the email channels prior to it happening? Move On, Tea Part Movement and many other controlled opposition fronts took to the streets demanding change and freedom from slavery. Some were advocating violence against the Bankers, who control the military and police. Then it came out that George Soros was indirectly funding the movement. Of course the Protestors are demonized by the press and made to look like idiots, so that the real issues are never discussed keeping many people oblivious the horrific crimes currently taking place.

There is an end game to all of this and it was announced yesterday by the Vatican no less. The solution that the Vatican came up with was to create a World Central Bank, with a one world currency along with an economic authority to rule over the world. Essence being the start of the New World Order, with a One World Government, One Currency, One Bank and One Army, being NATO. Up until yesterday I really didn't think that they would have the guts to go about trying to make this happen, but indeed it is about to happen.

What I figure is going to happen is that the establishment will send out there Politicians to talk with the People along with a host of false leaders of the movement to talk to the protestors about the solution of bringing in a One World Currency etc. They will make it look like the people had a voice in deciding to make this come true and then one day soon, all Countries in the world will simply opt into this New World Banking and Governing structure, claiming that it is the only solution to everyone's misery. Of course there will be outrage, but that is what NATO and the Police are there for right? They are simply going to pretend to talk to us about this and then use their false front people to outweigh the concerns of the regular people who show up to these OWS type events. There are many parasites that are seething at the chance to see their NWO come into reality and are well enough funded to be out there ever day, while a lot of us have to work.

Why now? Well as learned earlier the Apex of evolution for humanity occurs on October 28th. Thus they are playing this to the Mayan Calendar and see what is coming. They have to get this One World Government in place pretty quickly now so the push is on, from what I am seeing. Of course the solution is simply to end the need for exchange on everything and work together to create a valueless world based on love, where everyone's basic needs for life are met and then some; also the release of advance technologies that would allow us to live off the grid and be independent. But many people are not ready for that yet I think. People are still conditioned in thinking that they need to be compensated money wise in some way for the work they do. It is a fear based condition and relates to not being nurtured as a child in this life or a past life. It is treatable via the human energy field but it takes many more people who have the training to heal the masses. Interestingly the dis-ease is called a Psychopathic energetic response, aptly named eh, but it has different attributes in the spiritual realm. There are also problems with the Haric level of consciousness where the Haric line is broken in some places and thus does not allow the flow of energy from outside of this dimension we refer to as the Universe, which causes a lot of conflict.

Anyways I just saying that we have a long way to go and there has been a great deal of manipulation done to us to make us slaves. The consequences of allowing the NWO to take its place will much more severe than things are now from what I am gathering. When they obtain absolute power through the game called Law, it is likely that the tyrants will want to crush any remaining opposition as fast as possible and then bring in their depopulation wet dream along with Agenda 21. I don't think we can really run and hide from this, but we can make use of the knowledge that we are not fictions and thus not part of their game. The truth has worked fairly well for me and it should continue to work. The problem is many people still have no comprehension of the simple truth of free will, they think as slaves and not as One.

I keep hearing about these outside forces such as the Galactic Federation of Light etc. So far I have seen no evidence of their intervention, but some great inspiring stories though. The thing to watch out for is that they are going to bring in their Divine Law after all this goes down. Again the true creator made no laws and it is merely laws that allow for divide and concur. There has to be an over arching class that enslaves the population in order to have Divine Law work. Parasites do not concern themselves with laws, they simply put themselves in positions of power so they can break them.

Another thing that is interesting I noticed about the Mayan Calendar the other day is that it is described as being a process of the Underworld. In that we currently are experiencing the lower levels of consciousness of the Universe. The Universe is an embryo and we are the life of that infinite embryo. She will give birth to us, but in an energetic and natural way, hence ascension. The mutating force being the blue light explosion from the center of the Milky Way due here on December 25th next year from what I heard, will allow us to ascend. Considering how the cabal are acting and the never ending crop circles depicting this, I suspect it is going to happen. The radiation being released from Fukushima and other sources is designed to try and stop the mutation I think along with all the chemtrail spraying.

The Bible talks about the fact that LORD God created the Heavens and the earth. What in fact was created was an alter reality within the lower astral of the Universe for us to ascend into. This is described by the Galactic Federation of Light as being a place with higher perfection. You will notice how much attention is put into sacred geometry with the GFL and other related sources. The Dark Forces aka LORD God contingent CONstruct realities by manipulating energies with mathematical relationships with planets and planet structures. You will notice how much they see their reality in terms of numerical relationships both on earth and in the Universe, as everything is a thing and comes from the source of all things, it is anti-life.

What you see by this explosion from the center of the Galaxy is really no mathematical relationship at all, it is simply pure light with mutation information within it. The Universe is a Holographic environment and light is the conduit of love and information. How we interact with the light determines if we are working in the dark or in the true light. Love is true light as it is self aware and Omni present. Dark light actually is fear trying to hide within the love passing as merely information to distract us from love and who we are. The other thing

I find interesting is that GFL will artificially allow us to ascend to various dimensions after some major events happen on earth via the use of their machines on their ships? Again an artificial reality CONstruct. If they were truly concerned about us, why not remove the cabal and help us make the transition from slaves to free will now? Of course I have no way to confirm that these guys exist at all, but it does seem like it is a side show compared to the reality of the NWO taking its final grasp of power over the slaves on this planet.

The end game is upon us now and how it turns out is anyone's guess. But based on what I see everything is and always has been stacked in favour of the Cabal. Maybe that will change after the 28th, as this reality is merely an illusion for our consciousness to focus on. It is not who we are or where we came from. However be as it may, there is a duality of forces at play here and perhaps in light of what creation is, is it allows for choice of evolution, in that those who vibrate in love will ascend and those who vibrate in fear will descend in the game of creation. Send out love and light with the message about free will, maybe that will help wake more up.
