

The Dog and Pony Show

Well it has been an interesting week. The Provost Marshal of Canada was contacted concerning the Courts being outside of the Jurisdiction of Canada and that the RCMP were not operating under the true allegiance to the Queen. What did we get back? Please take up your issues with the complaints commission, we don't have jurisdiction over the RCMP and don't bother us in the future with this kind of info.

So much for Oaths of Office and the law of the land,\; which brings me to what is really going on. It is about and always has been about the money. When you are arrested they make you sign a promise to appear in court to face charges. It doesn't mention anything about a trial. A trial is... better sit down for this one.... Sitting? Okay a trial is a benefit privilege. Yes a mere privilege so you can hire $5000/ hour Attorneys and watch him/her magically produce all kinds of meaningless paper and drag on things until you are nearly bankrupt and then produce a final argument to the court to be judged.

The dog and pony show is merely the fact that you stood for trial. That's right you stood for a trial that was offered to you as a benefit privilege. You were only supposed to appear to face the charges nothing more. It mattered not what laws were broken, all they care about are the charges. This is the where the trust laws come into play as you are in a commercial court. They read the charges out and then ask you how you plea. There is no need to plea, as that is the red hearing. You merely have to ask, where is the trustee? The court room goes silent. Then you look at the Judge and say, "I appoint you the fiduciary trustee and order you to pay off the bond for the charges against the public trust account the name JOHN EDWARD DOE is attached too, if that is the correct way to discharge the charges, if not please discharge them the correct way as you are the trustee".

Yip, that is all there is to it. You were never meant to go to trial over anything. There is no contract or requirement for you do so. Merely appear to face the charges and walk out after that as that was all that you were asked to do.

Winston ShROUT once said that all one has to do is waive their Benefit Privileges. So if you are arrested you should simply say, you do not consent to this and waive your benefit privilege of being arrested. The reason we can do this is man is above law. We do hold dominion over all the earth, however the living things need us to tell them what to do and how to balance their accounts when it relates to us, because they are our slaves. You can never really win in a trial anyways, for they only try living things called persons and thus a slave can never prevail over its master.

Thanks goes out to mary croft for her insights.

rob hay

www.freedomfiles.org

April 17, 2010