

Thoughts and Analysis of the Torah

The Torah means The Law and is the first five books of the Holy Bible. The purpose of this article is to help people gain a deeper understanding of their dominion and how it all relates back to Law. There are two kinds of Law, Gods Law and Man's Law. There are other Religions as well and belief systems such as Islam and Sharia Law. For the most part though I am focusing on the Torah here. I have not read the Koran enough to comment on it, although I do believe the Koran is an offshoot of the Torah as it came from a Cardinal of the Roman Catholic Church, Muhammad.

What many people are confused about in terms of law is that all law revolves around contract, Biblical Law is no different. The basis for all Contract is Love for it allows for free will to choose. However once a Contract is agreed upon there are rewards and consequences involved for either doing as agreed or not doing as agreed. There are tacit based contracts, verbal and written. Tacit occurs when you imply that you are under a contract by making use of laws of others to defend yourself or comply in some way when asked by a person in authority to do so, such as appear in court.

All systems of Law are derived from some form of authority. In all cases the authority or structure of authority remains sovereign while all those who contract with the authority are subjects of that authority. In essence there can only be one ruler. Under the Rule of Law everyone is subject to the same laws with exceptions given to the law enforcers and the ones who make up the laws and practice law. Lawyers cannot be sued and their obligation is to the Courts, not to their clients. In all cases of Law we see the master/slave relationship being imposed. Slavery is fundamental to all law systems, for within it free will cannot exist, which is represented in the Bible as being our Dominion.

In Genesis 1:26-28 God creates man male and female and gives them dominion over all the earth. It means that man is free to make choices on things, however the problems start when those choices interfere with someone else's dominion. Dominion means to rule. So in order to get around this issue, we enter into agreements or rather contracts with each other so resources and aspects of life are shared mutually. The problem is again though, that some people do not want to share and simply destroy others to get what they want. War is never ending on earth it seems as there is a constant struggle for resources, power and control. So realistically in order to get a mass amount of people to follow you, you have to promise them something that they perceive is not obtainable on their own. This is where Religion comes into play and the promise of a heavenly paradise for those who obey and follow the laws. The other way is to imply brutal force or destruction on those who do not comply with the laws. The Torah promotes both systems of reward and punishment, yet it is still contractual.

In terms of the Torah the relationship between fearing God and loving God gets to be psychotic in many aspects. LORD God wants people to love him and punish them if they don't and fear him if they won't love him, it is akin to Stockholm Syndrome I would surmise. For the most part the Children of Israel are the ones whom God choose to make a covenant with, although anyone was free to enter into a Covenant with him and follow him as there was a priest Balaam who was not among the Children of Israel, but would did follow and Obey God, much like Moses did. Seemed LORD God was busy with everyone to some degree or another. The story about Balaam is in Numbers 22. where it begins to talk about Baal Worship and how Balak wanted Balaam to curse the Children of Israel and drive them away from his city. Balaam told Balak that the Children of Israel were Blessed and he could only curse those that were cursed and bless only those that were blessed. Balaam deceived Balak three times and instead of cursing the Children he blessed them with the sacrifice offerings Balak gave him. Balaam was eventually killed by the Children of Israel unintentionally in a war against Balak, where they wiped out his city. The Children had to perform a Sacrifice to remove the sin they committed by killing Balaam.

You see Sin was not present in man until Adam and Eve took of the Fruit of the Tree of Knowledge. What this seemed to do was cause man to take on flesh and blood instead of the body structure God had created for them in the Garden of Eden. All sin is removed through the sacrifice of Blood and LORD God makes it abundantly clear in a few places that man is not to eat/drink blood of any animal for the blood is his. All life is within the Blood.

When Abel came before the LORD with some sheep as an offering to him it pleased God, but Cain presented some plants he had gathered for an offering. There is no blood in plants and his offering was rejected by the LORD. So Cain went and slew Abel and Abel's blood went into the earth, which caused some problems for LORD God. It is at this point where God makes Cain an outlaw and banishes him from the land that Adam and Eve dwelt in and put a mark upon his forehead so that anyone finding him could slay him if they so wished. This began the land of Canaan, where Satanism in all its forms took over. The Canaanites were very much about serving the desires of the flesh, versus God wanting his Children to care about their spirit rather than the wants and desires of flesh. You notice how much sacrificing of animals goes on to remove sin. Flesh is curse that Adam and Eve took on and everything revolves around the curse of flesh.

After the Cain and Abel story we get into the Fallen Angels who interbred with the daughters of man and created the Giants or Nephilim. Now instead of simply dealing with the flesh aspects of the curse, we now enter into the demonic spiritual side of it. Can you imagine being God and creating man in your image and after your likeness to see all this going on? The interbreeding got so bad that it nearly wiped out man on the earth and God sent in the Great Flood saving only Noah and his family. The Children of Israel are descendants of Abram, who was Noah's son. LORD God changed his name to Abraham, when he offered his covenant to Abraham and is entire lineage. From Abraham we got Issac who begot Jacob. I really enjoyed this part of Exodus story, for LORD God was truly doing things to help everyone survive and nurture a path for humanity as a whole. Israel is Jacob's name given to him by LORD God in Genesis 35:10.

And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

There is much confusion over the State of Israel and the people of Israel. A people is also called a nation and a nation will occupy land. LORD God allowed them to concur land east of Jordan after they came out of Egypt, but would not allow them to enter into the land which is called the State of Israel today. In terms of the Torah, which is the first 5 chapters of the Holy Bible, LORD God made it very clear a number of times that the Children of Israel were not to occupy this land by the Mediterranean. It is the Zionists who believe that they were allowed this land as an inheritance.

At the end of the book Deuteronomy it explains how Moses dies. Interestingly this is the fifth book of Moses. As you can see bellow the book was finished by someone writing about how the LORD buried Moses in the valley in the land of Moab. This verifies that the Five books from Genesis to Deuteronomy were not actually written by Moses as many people believe, because Moses could not have written how the LORD buried him in the Land of Moab. Further the symbolic five books, may have an occult meaning in terms of a five pointed star. As we know there is no love in Judgement or in Law.

Deu 34:1 And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan,

Deu 34:2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea, Deu 34:3 And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.

Deu 34:4 And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

Here again LORD God tells Moses before he dies that that this is not the land for the Children of Israel at this time. Considering that the Torah ends here if the Jewish people believe only in the Torah as Orthodox Jews do, then there is nothing further for them in terms of land for LORD God to allow them into. However Jews are not the Children of Israel. Judaism is a Religion not a race and they are not following God's Word in the Torah.

This is the section written by an unknown which proves that that someone else other than Moses wrote these books.

Deu 34:5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

Deu 34:6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

Deu 34:7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

Prediction of Failure to Follow the Laws

The system of law put forward in the Torah was only designed to allow people who followed the entire system of law to be redeemed by LORD God. Those that did were called Saints. Thus LORD God prophesized that most of the people would no longer follow the ways put forward as the Law and would succumb to the curses that that LORD God stated would happen to them in Deuteronomy 28. Those that did follow the Law would be very blessed.

This is where LORD God talks about it with Moses. LORD God wants Joshua to take over from Moses and they are in the Tabernacle when LORD God states this.

Deu 31:14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

Deu 31:15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

Deu 31:16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

Now Moses instructed the Levites, who were the priest class with no inheritance to put inside the Ark of the Covenant the book of the Law, so it could be used later as a witness against the Children of Israel, when they might say they hadn't broken the Covenant with LORD God.

Deu 31:26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

The thing that seemed to really enrage LORD God the most was when man served and followed other gods. My point to this is, that if LORD God was so Jealous of this happening, why would he not get rid of the other gods? The other gods were in truth the fallen angels that were with God in heaven and had followed Lucifer in his rebellion against God. So What is happening is that the other gods work to get man to rebel against God, by doing sinful things. In order for dominion to exist we have to have free will choice. The rewards and consequences of our choices are reflected in how we align our choices with Good or Evil. In fact the LORD states that all Good leads to Life and all Evil leads to Death.

Deu 30:15 See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil;

In Genesis we read about how people were servants of or out right slaves and the use of concubines was widely in use. As time progresses though LORD God ends the use of Concubines and sexual depravity by making laws concerning the conduct of people around sexuality and marriage. Stoning was instituted for those committing adultery. Early on a fellow was out gathering sticks on he Sabbath to make a fire I suppose and was caught doing this. The fellow was stoned for doing it because it was the Judgement of the LORD in his Law.

When people grumbled about the harshness or lack of faith in LORD God, he would simply smote a few thousand people because of their lack of love and belief in him. By any measure today this is tyrannical. Yet the reasoning behind all this was that LORD God was trying to set morality into the hearts and minds of these people. Going back to the Garden of Eden, Adam and Eve had no sense of morality, for they had no understanding of Good and Evil. Remember when LORD God said,

Gen 3:22 And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

It is very clear that all evil leads to death and all good leads to life. In many ways it seemed that LORD God was also learning about man and his creation there in as to their limitations and desires. So as the Torah progressed as it is with the entire Bible for that matter, grace and mercy start to come into play based upon what is termed righteousness. But in terms of the Torah, we are dealing with a time where Adam and Eve exercised their dominion to do evil versus following the command of God not to eat from the Tree of Knowledge. Thus man fell into a duality where evil is favoured over good and evil has the upper hand. What is evil is simply that that goes against creation and the natural order of life. LORD God was now tasked with trying to sustain man amongst a all the evil that was going on, which lead to death for all man. So as harsh as the LORD may seem to be, ultimately he is trying to preserve souls from being tainted by evil and thus death.

What I did not understand early in my research was that the Ancient Mystery Schools of Egypt were in truth Luciferian in nature. It is Satan that rules over this physical world and it is LORD God that rules over the Spiritual world. Each can do things in both realms, but eternal life is in the spirit, not in the physical realm. Although in the end Jesus says that this reality will be made anew and all evil will be destroyed. Jesus said that his Kingdom is not of this world, the father and Jesus are one in the same.

In terms of what is foretold about how many of the Children of Israel are actually redeemed after all this is made clear in Deu 28:62-63

And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

Deu 28:63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

It is very clear that not even LORD God after doing all this work to this point, has much faith in the vast majority of the Children of Israel in succeeding in following his commandments and being redeemed. What is however interesting is that LORD God does not slam the door close to man, but states that if man chooses to follow him even after failing to obey his commandments and laws in the future, they will be redeemed, much as what Jesus was saying. Not only does he say this but he also says that we as man exist within the heavens, not just on earth. We are meant to leave earth and expand into heaven on our own.

Deu_30:4 If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

This is also akin to what it says in Revelations that in the end all those in Jesus Christ will be gathered up after the tribulation. In fact what the people are going through here with LORD God is a form of Tribulation, because they are going with that which is good, which is not the nature of this physical reality based upon death and thus evil. It also verifies to me that at this point there has been no mention of Hell at all. It is simply a matter of returning to God or remaining with the Fallen Angel gods. The gods are actually the Nephilim that were wiped out in the Great Flood and were swallowed up by the earth and are in a cave structure within the earth. They try to influence man and possess man from the spirit realm and have a lot of knowledge of how this reality works and is what the Magi in the Mystery Schools of Egypt were tapped into.

Some Final Thoughts on the Torah and Dominion

I hate to say final thoughts as there is much to talk about and learn from the Torah. But there is a pattern of expansion and contraction that is consistent with creation, at least within the duality. You see the expansion and contraction constantly played out and with each expansion of life comes destruction and lessons of the ways of that life. In so much as LORD God wants us to both fear and love him, the purpose behind it all is to elevate our spiritual awareness within the darkness of this reality. In Genesis it states that darkness was upon the face of the waters. Guess where we are hmm? So in some ways I am kind of angry with God in that he seems very hypocritical in thinking that we can all be saints in a sea of darkness and hold so much power over us.

I was really miffed when they had their first day of sin offerings open up at their newly built Tabernacle and the first ones to have their sins forgiven were the Prince of each tribe, who each brought wagon loads of offerings, which the common man would never have access too, so much for not having respect for persons. God views each of us as we are, not as titles of personhood. The nature of property ownership also grinds against me in many ways as we all started out with dominion and still do hold dominion and thus are equal. However there was a game changer when man fell. In fact women lost their right of dominion to be ruled by men in Genesis 3:16

Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.

In Genesis 37:8 Joseph has a dream about holding great power over all the people. He tells about this dream to his siblings and they respond with this statement:

Gen 37:8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

It seemed that dominion was still foremost on the minds of Jacob's sons. Joseph was sold into slavery by his siblings to eventually be imprisoned in Egypt, where he saved everyone in the region through a dream interpretation that LORD God was going to cause a 7 year famine. Because of this he was elevated to Governor of the entire Egyptian empire by Pharaoh and only answered to Pharaoh himself. It is a enjoyable story of expansion of life aided by LORD God. After Pharaoh died another Pharaoh took over and forgot about what Joseph did for Egypt and increasing their wealth as they had the only food in the region during the famine. The new Pharaoh enslaved the Hebrews and it was LORD God's will to free the Hebrews as he had made a covenant with their father Abraham man years before this point.

So from this point LORD God frees the Hebrews from Egypt and appoints Moses as their leader. From there LORD God goes about trying to show them how horrible other people are in there idol worship, human sacrificing and other satanic things. God organizes the people to go to war in order to clear land and give them a home so they may live. However LORD God kept them nomadic for a long time, over 40 years for the most part. Much so they could get a sense of what other people were doing versus what God wanted them to do in terms of righteousness and good.

Another big problem that LORD God had to contend with was that there was a problem with their hearts and perception of the world in that they were not connected properly to the spiritual realm, but only to the carnal physical realm, so much of what he was trying to show them and have them learn was completely foreign to them, hence why so many failed at keeping his covenant.

The Covenant was being followed through on through most of the Torah due to the promise LORD God made with Abraham to make him a great nation through his seed. Abraham again was the son of Noah and LORD God changed his name to Abraham from Abram. Dominion was finally restored to everyone before Moses set out to die in the land of Moab. Moses put it this way to the Children of Israel.

Deu 29:12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

Deu 29:13 That he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Deu 29:14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath;

Deu 29:15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

Deu 29:16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

Deu 29:17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:)

Deu 29:18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood;

It is at this point that Moses releases everyone from having to obey him, because of the Covenant that LORD God made with Abraham and invites each of them on their own to step forward and enter into a Covenant individually with LORD God. At this point everyone knows the law and thus morals and can choose to walk with God or not. However as I mentioned earlier, few are able to maintain this covenant due to the dark forces that surround them and tempt them on a daily basis. It is basically where we are all still at today.

Mans Law versus God's Law

As many in the Freedom movement know, there are two sets of laws, those made by man and those made by God. God's Judgements are brutal in that they were to stone people who broke a commandment, in order to keep the evil thus death from infringing on the people. There was an example where after Balak did not get his way with Balaam cursing the people, but rather blessed them, he sent women into the midst of the Children of Israel to start whoredom, which you guessed it at this point was against the law. Because of the wide spread sex going on those involved were killed as it was causing a plague of sickness to spill over onto the people around them.

Today the Synagogue of Satan runs the law on the planet. There is a continual tug of war between passing laws the support God's Ways or Satan's Ways. Because Satan currently rules over this world, he has the upper hand. In contrast to God's Law you have Alistair Crowley in his statement, Do as though wilt shall be the whole of the Law. Alistair served the gods who were at odds with God and thus what is commonly considered to be Man's Law in many ways is the law of the gods.

I am not certain I could stone anyone for breaking one of God's Laws. Jesus told a group of people who were about to Stone someone for Adultery, he who has never sinned cast the first stone. It is highly questionable that the Jews today are the Children of Israel. The Children are of a genetic bloodline from Jacob who was given the name Israel by LORD God. LORD God extended his covenant to anyone who would follow him such as it were with Balaam and others. It was LORD God's intent to make the Children of Israel into a great Nation based upon very high moral values. Many of these morals or laws are not practiced by the Jewish community at all. Jesus said that their Father was the devil, hence they were following the devil/Satan, not LORD God. This passage in John 8 Jesus says pretty much the same thing to the Jews, they do not follow God, but follow the Devil and do sin, thus they are not of the Father. The Father said numerous times in the Torah those that did not keep his laws would be cut off from him and the congregation. It has to do again with taking on sin and doing evil rather than doing good.

Joh 8:30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

Joh 8:31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

Joh 8:32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

Joh 8:33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

Joh 8:34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

Joh 8:35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

Joh 8:36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

Joh 8:37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

Joh 8:38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

Joh 8:39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

Joh 8:40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

Joh 8:41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

Joh 8:42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

Joh 8:43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

Joh 8:44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

Joh 8:45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

LORD God said he would scatter them over the earth when they broke their covenant up to prior to WW II, that is what they were, scattered all over the place. It is my feeling that if they truly were to follow the Torah, we would have peace on earth in many ways as they could have lit the way to a better more prosperous life for all. However again with the nature of this reality very few people will ever be made Saints through the Old Covenant. It begs the question do they hold onto the notion that they are God's Chosen purely from the perspective of maintaining power and control over humanity for their own benefit, thus following Satan or do they choose to follow Jesus Christ who abolished the Laws of Moses and brought us to grace in that if we Believe in Jesus Christ and follow him, we would enter heaven as Saints and Jesus would stand in the wrath of the Father for our sins. Essentially Jesus said we were to love one another. I think many of us do, but those who follow Satan and the Fallen Angels have other plans and work tirelessly to bring about complete world domination and destruction of humanity if they can get away with it. There are many ways to falter in all this. I think one of the greatest gifts the world has been given, was Jesus dying on the cross for our sins, but the second would be the LORD's Prayer.

I also wanted to point out that before Moses died he offered up the covenant to everyone, not just the Children of Israel. Anyone that would follow LORD God would be of his Congregation. There is no mention of Gentile or Jew, LORD God is the Father of all that exists and he gave examples of showing others who were not the Children of Israel, that he helped. Further God was very protective of certain lands and of other people and told the Children of Israel not to interfere with them. The Children of Israel were chosen by God to lead humanity out of Sin and bring them back to Father, not to be a chosen few that do as though wilt as it was in the time of Jesus and now for the most part. Those that reach out to follow God will never be turned away, that is why he said he would gather you from where ever you are on earth and in heaven if you choose to follow him. Dominion has been restored at this point as truth had been restored among man.

In the end who do we follow. Alistair Crowley and company or God? Is there another choice? Well there is nothing in the Torah that mentions Hell or any final Judgement of any kind. In fact it states that although we move away from God any time we decide to move back towards God he will gather us, its unconditional love, it is absolute and never failing. In terms of how difficult things were for the people living in the time of Moses trying to overcome all the evils that were around them, including their enslavement, LORD God reached out and did what he could to save his creation of man. Again I wonder why are having to go through all this to begin with? Why can't God simply make things without Evil? Well I think in order to have a reality without evil, we need to know what evil is, thus through love we choose to do good over evil.

I also have a better appreciation for God and feeling of remorse for him in that he too must suffer with all this going on. It is not a happy situation for any of us. Perhaps if Lucifer had simply chosen not to take on an ego and fall, things would be better for us all.

Mans Law or God's Law. In the end we are the ones living in this realm. Do we choose to love one another and prosper together or do we do as though wilt? Life is very unfair and unpredictable a lot of the time. We all come into this world alone and we all leave it alone. It is an experience and I don't think we were ever meant to spend eternity in some place called Hell, but simply to grow and become more like what God wanted us to be. Jesus said the Kingdom of Heave was full of people that were as children. Sometimes I think wouldn't it be better if we all died as children and never had to go through all this stuff? In Revelations it talks about over coming, over coming all the temptations of this world that lead us into Sin. It is certainly a narrow road filled with a lot of persecution and pain, so much easier to do as tough wilt eh? Am I my Brother's Keeper?

Anyways more of the Bible to read and will write on all this further. Dominion still stands today, although it was taken away from us for a time while we were learned about the Law. We have dominion so we can choose life or choose death, it is absolute and never ending.
