

Mastering the Name Game

In the Secular Legal System they operate within the realm of fiction for the simple reason that there is no truth within fiction. Hence to see this clearly you need to examine the legal definition of the word truth and see where that leads you.

Blacks 7th

Truth:

1. A fully accurate account of events; factuality. 2 Defamation. An affirmative defence by which the defendant asserts that the alleged defamatory statement is substantially accurate.

Thus we need to look up the word fact as they tagged the word factuality to the word truth. Would it not seem that A fully accurate account of events, by itself would be acceptable? It goes a bit deeper as well in that what is true for one individual in terms of their perspective may not be true for someone else. This is why a jury of someone's peers is important in trials, but seldom if ever do we see that. In many situations of high profile cases juries are told by the Judge how to decide things and can outright reject verdicts of Jury verdicts. However this is simply endemic of the entire system being based upon fiction and/or rather an illusion of authority.

Fact:

1. Something that actually exist; an aspect of reality . 2. An actual or alleged event or circumstance, or interpretation . 3. An evil deed; a crime .

This is completely contradictory to say anything alleged can be factual. It means anything that is hearsay is a fact. Further anything that is a fact is defined as being an evil deed and in fact a crime. Thus all states of truth are evidence of a crime. Any statement of truth such as an affidavit for example, is a written confession that the one who swears and signs an affidavit is guilty of a crime and is doing evil.

If you take the time to learn what the words mean in a Legal Dictionary, you will eventually come across the understanding that the same word can have many different meanings and that the language of the words regardless of what language they are written in, is all called Legalese. Blacks 7th defines Legalese as a Jargon. If you go to an English Dictionary such as Webster's Dictionary you will see that Jargon in English is defined as an unintelligible language. In fact only Lawyers are allowed to draft up laws for legislation and mostly non lawyers are told to vote or not to vote for it in the legislatures across the world, especially if the bill being voted on could jeopardize a party's power base rendering a vote of non confidence on a government forcing an election. Yet again the lawyers remain within the system drafting up all the laws irregardless of what party is in power. When it comes to interpreting what is written in law only lawyers, not Police Officers, clerks etc. are allowed to interpret what is actually said in Acts of Law.

Generally you will see a lot of Acts of Legislation and a lot of court documents all written in upper case along with the names. In theatre this is called Play script. Everything is written in upper case because it represents the truth in that it is all being done in fiction. This is perhaps why Shake Spear said all the world is a stage, because the world is run on the premise of fiction, not truth. Everyone in the court is participating in a ritual and acting out their parts of the play. The purpose of this is that all the actors are acting for names of persons, not for who they truly are. Who you are is a man, created as male or female by God, standing in your dominion over all the earth as per Genesis 1:26-28.

The introduction of evil on the earth did not take place until after man named all that was on the earth and LORD God gave man his name, being Adam. Adam was given Eve, who he named Eve and they both took of the fruit from the tree of knowledge going against what LORD God asked of them. The first law of magick is, knowing the name of someone or thing allows you to control it. After Adam and Eve took of the fruit from the Tree of Knowledge LORD God cast them out of the Garden of Eden. To cast is to cast spells, it is magick. Adam then knew Eve and begat Able then Cain. Able please LORD God and did good and Cain did not please LORD God and did evil by killing his brother Able, saying to LORD God am I my Brother's keeper? Thus representing the duality of good and evil from which the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge gave to Adam and Eve and their offspring.

The Garden of Eden did not exist until LORD God called a part of the earth that. You will note in Genesis 1, the planet earth is referenced as being with a small e and the Earth with a large E is the actual dirt on the ground. This is not by chance, it is meant to separate meanings of words so we are not confused as it is with Play Script being all capitals versus upper and lower case spelling. Nothing on earth had a name until Adam in The Garden of Eden went and named everything that was in the Garden and after doing so God naming man, Adam.

The accounts of Genesis 1 creation versus the accounts of Genesis 2 of creation are different in some aspects, however I believe that Genesis 1 is spoken of from a purely spiritual perspective, where as Genesis 2 forward is spoken of from the physical or carnal perspective. The purpose of this is the introduction of duality as duality did not exist at all in Genesis 1 as all that was created was either good or very good, there was no evil present as there is no mention of evil in Genesis 1 at all.

Now in order to love someone you need to have free will. In order to have free will you need to have choice. Genesis 2, being Chapter 2, meaning two chapters and now the introduction of a duality presents us with an alternative story to the creation story of Genesis 1. When we start reading Genesis 2 we are bring brought into a new realm based upon the free will so we can exercise our dominion within duality to choose good over evil. Why this is important is that through choice we have the ability to love or not to love God. In order to have dominion one needs free will, thus all creation comes through God, who through his free will choose to love us, but in turn we must choose to love him, through doing Good and following his commands of us, which all his commands are based upon principles of love and creation. If you choose to not love God and follow him then you cannot exist within his creation based upon love and are Judged and destroyed because of it.

Why would evil be allowed to exist when the natural forces that exist are based upon love? It can't and thus why everything that is evil is based upon fiction or rather a lie. What is the lie? Well Satan was described as a liar and a murderer from the beginning by Jesus Christ, John 8:44. Hence we see clearly that Cain murdered Able and lied to God about, by saying am I my brother's keeper. Rather than smoting Cain right there on the spot killing him, God let Cain go but removed sent away from the land that his parents were in, hence starting up the lands of the Canaanites. It is my opinion that Cain was greatly influenced by Satan and chose to follow Satan or rather Lucifer at this point in time (serpent) rather than choose to follow and love God. It is clear from the Bible that the Canaanites were deeply involved in Baal worship, which is what the courts are actually involved with today. Many of the Children of Israel were pulled into Baal worship from time to time as well and were ultimately punished or destroyed from doing so by LORD God.

We exist within a duality where we have free will choice to do good or evil. This duality is slated to come to an end when God passes his final Judgement over man and makes all things new again. The Sun will no longer exist, but God will be our light and he will be our God in the new City of Light called Jerusalem. All that is good is of love and all that is evil will parish in a lake of fire and be destroyed forever. Ultimately all that is going on right now is simply about us exercising our dominion to good versus evil and to over come all the hardships from trying to do that which is good. The entire SYSTEM is corrupt and designed to enslave and perpetuate suffering so the ruling elite may have all power over what God created, including man. The entire thing is about Satan/Lucifer ruling over the earth and ultimately destroying man in the process.

However in order for them to have power over you, you have to show that you forsake God and bow to them and thus worship them. You see people in court bow to the Judge and call the Judges, Lord, your Honour or your Worship. The command, All rise this court is now in session, Judge so and so presiding, is done to get you and everyone else to bow to the authority of the court and thus Judge, as the Judge did not bow to the court, did he/she? No, no, no... The Judge takes the seat high above everyone and the Temple Priest has now entered the Temple and is looking over the sacrifices for the day. The sacrifices are the names as again the first law of magick is knowing the name of a thing or person.

The black robed clerks, lawyers and Judges are participating in a ritual using the language of legalese lying to all about their authority, which they flaunt as being the Queen or some other figure head. The idea of Kings first came from the Canaanites I think as the Children of Israel asked God for a King to rule over them. There were Princes prior to this, but it is unclear as to where this all came from originally, but because they were held captive by the Egyptians, who I think greatly influenced by Baal worship because of the Pyramids and Royalty structure there, that this was the reason for it. Unfortunately things did not go well for King Saul as the first King as he became corrupted and eventually fell on his sword. Yet that didn't ultimately kill him as a Philistine man cut his head off after Saul asked him to finish him off. King Saul was anointed King and no one was allowed to kill him as he was anointed by God.

Anyways I digressed. If you look back in the early days of the Hebrews there was no Royalty structure, however because some people were chosen by God to create great nations, they had a lot of resources being sheep, goats etc. and were called lords. The difference though is that the lords were not role playing roles, they had true authority from God our creator and people served them, because they all followed the same laws and commandments that God had asked of them. It wasn't until Jesus Christ came in flesh to earth, being God not a prophet etc., that he brought to us the ability for all to grow in the Holy Spirit and thus removed the need for any temple as man is, was and always will be the temple of God. Our bodies are the temple not some Church or Court Room etc.

In the days prior to Jesus being Crucified on the Cross, we as man needed temples to deal with the sin we incurred in order to please God. The thing that God cannot stand within is sin as there is no darkness within him. When we break a commandment, such as stealing or lying we commit sin and this stays with us. By stealing or lying we are choosing not to love one another and thus separating ourselves from the body of God, which exists without sin. Too much sin can bring judgment onto people and thus lead to their destruction, again because the natural order is that of love and there is no evil within love. The courts present an all capital letter name, which is lie. You accept it as being your name, then you are going along with their lie. This indicates that you have forsaken God and have entered the secular reality of there being no God, only that man has authority over man based upon the rule of law, which comes from man. The law is all written in Play Script because it is telling you that everything is in fiction and thus a lie. The purpose of this is that man has no authority over man, but if they can get you to lie about who you are, thus being a person of some kind then it matters not to them what goes on after that, for Satan can go before God and say the individual has forsaken you and is committing a sin, thus there is nothing God can do as you have chosen not to follow and love God.

If you steal something or lie to someone, you also have the choice to tell the one you harmed and atone for what you did, before getting the Police involved and getting caught up in their system. In fact many times people fess up to their doings under amnesty. To kill someone else kind of leaves this atonement situation difficult, but you will be surprised to know that in the Bible LORD God told the Children of Israel to make places in their cities for Slayers to go to, where they would be kept safe if they killed someone. They were being protected from the family of the ones that they killed. This was done so that they could have their sin forgiven in the temple by offerings to the priest, but more importantly it was only to protect those who killed someone out of the heat of the moment or unintentionally, much like how 2nd degree murder or man slaughter is today. Those who did premeditated murder were not allowed safety within the cities of refuge, but put to death as God's Law says. To gain more insight into all this I suggest this YouTube video: <https://youtu.be/BVXD2xDXEJ8?t=17m20s>

In terms of present day law, the Judges are merely actors of the Levite Priesthood. They follow a similar structure, however everything is turned upside down and backwards. When people go to court they are not there to be atoned for sins under God, but rather they are there out laws based upon legalism and involved in a ritual sacrifice of their material world, if not their soul as well. They in essence forsake God by saying giving an oath usually ending with so help me God, saying they are God. The truth being that they are not God and that no one except God can know the entire whole truth of anything, for only God can look into our hearts and know what is true within us. Satanism is all about extracting life force energy from it's victims to support the world built on sinking sands. Something must die to support life in Satan's world(s) and it is those who do not worship Satan that he aims to oppress the most, which is blatantly obvious. However when a worshiper of Satan loses his ability to oppress or manipulate others, their value to him is diminished and they are sometimes ritually sacrificed as a human sacrifice for there is more value in that I suspect.

To master the name game one has to recognize that we are all simply man created as male and female by God. We were created without sin as we were blessed by God in Genesis 1:28, however our carnal mother and father Adam and Eve took on sin by disobeying God and taking of the fruit from the tree of Knowledge. In essence all law is acted upon the names of people. No law is acted upon an individual without a name. Ultimately each of us is still blessed by God and we do hold dominion over all the earth. In order to love God our Father in Heaven though, we needed to know the paradigm of Good and Evil. In order to enter into the imaginary world of lies and evil man would require a name. It is not enough to simply love God. Love comes through choice of doing what is good versus evil. We are given a gift to choose good and stay connected with God or do evil and be destroyed by our own choices not to be with God. All that is Good is of love God says in Revelations. It is all about overcoming evil to do what is righteous and good.

The passage in the Bible where it says God is not a respecter of Persons is very important. The word person has been changed to also represent corporations, which are merely non living legal entities. I suspect this is more of a Roman thing than anything else. However a person such as Jew, Christian, Canadian, American, Black, Hispanic, Judge, Mayor etc. in reference to actual living people, is what Person is being referred to in the Bible. God simply does not respect persons, because he loves all his children, no matter what. This includes Cain who murdered Able and the Canaanites etc. God never forsakes anyone who turns to him in their hearts. We are all his children, everyone comes from God and it is only God who holds any authority over us. It is only God's will that be done and we are to be humble and meek in our ways with each other.

However as the serpent told Adam and Eve, ye shall be as gods and though shall not die. Well the crux of all this is that people who choose to harm others in various ways are expressing their ego in harmful ways to be as gods over others and ultimately do not believe they will be held accountable for their actions as they shall not die. We see the agenda to merge man with machine and enter into a state of transhumanism and eventually evolve into machines they will never be held accountable for any actions that they take. The robot sex slave market is already starting up and following with robots that could do house work and low skill jobs. Eventually this is will lead to a future where those who do not merge with machines will be killed off as those that do take on god like powers.

Eventually the name itself will be replaced by a number via a microchip, much as the number on people's Birth Certificates. In order to buy and sell one will have to have a chip implanted on their body, likely the hand or the forehead. In order for all this to work they must dehumanize the population. Television (Tell a Vision) rather than Tell a truth, is the medium which a lot of this programming happens. The other I would say is the Music and Movie industries that greatly distort the truth and tell people that they can be as gods or allow you to worship Stars who are called Divas etc. Much of this all stems from the Babylonian Talmud, which is a perverted teaching of the Torah. In truth I don't know why they call the first 5 books of the Bible the Torah other than it is the expanse of the life of Moses, where upon the events simply carry on with others of the Children of Israel following God's Commandments and Judgements. In order to entice people to be as gods, they need to have their ego stroked in gaining power over others, which separates them from being in union with God and all his Children. The demonic New Age doctrine is basically the same old stuff taught in the Ancient Mystery Schools. There is a dark and light side to it, one lead by Satan and the other by Lucifer, where Lucifer and Satan are one in the same. Their God is Lucifer and with it comes all trappings of Paganism and Witchcraft. Sadly people allow demonic spirits to enter them and these spirits are the fallen angels.

You notice that in Court that everyone seems to bow to the Judge and call him/her their worship. Ultimately most if not all Judges are freemasons and ultimately worship Lucifer. The Masonic Bible views Horus / Lucifer as their God, not God the Father who begat Jesus Christ his only begotten Son to save and redeem us for our sins along with the Holy Ghost. Within fiction there can be no truth, thus the perverted all caps name is not your true name. In fact again there is nothing true within the Courts they are all based upon lies. I do believe God intervenes in Court situations to counter the evil that goes on there, but it depends on what is in people's hearts and what we ask God to do for us. Ultimately God's will, will be done on earth as it is in Heaven, so it never hurts to ask God through your heart to help you.

The courts are an abomination of God in so many different ways, yet they say they are secular which is yet another abomination in of itself. There simply is no way for one to defend oneself within the court system as one is made to perjure oneself through an oath or simply forsake God in various ways, one by simply bowing to a Judge or another simply by showing up in court tacitly giving them authority over you by bowing to them and their God, Lucifer.

This world is a prison because Adam and Eve took on Sin. Everything that goes on revolves around God and his word in the Bible. To them anything of truth is blasphemy as again their can be no truth in fiction. They do not want be with God but rather be gods and inspire you to be a god too, if you only submit yourself to their system, which helps enslave all man kind. I can see that much of this is finally coming to an end, however things are not going to get easier for those wanting to follow God, but rather they want to exterminate anyone who follows God or who does not believe in God an atheist. They want to convert everyone into their One World Religion to worship the Beast, the Anti-Christ. Those of us who do choose to love and follow God through his word cannot be deceived and will work against their system, which ultimately will lead souls to Hell. I can't make it more easy on you than this. I wish we didn't have to experience this reality and we could all be together in Heaven with God, but many are choosing not to be and hence it is our free will that determins this.

God could have destroyed Cain for killing Able, but he didn't. Rather he made Cain into an outlaw and marked him as such. He ultimately wanted Cain to have free will choice to choose to love and follow him. In a sense the Cain was a Slayer and God recognized what was in his heart and did not destroy him. He did however not make life easy for Cain and those that followed the serpent. Eve stated that she was beguiled by the serpent, which deceived her. I think that those that choose not to follow God are easily beguiled into believing falsehoods and loose a lot of their critical thinking. Their ego's are puffed up and they see themselves as gods and above certain peoples in terms of intellect or genetics etc. I believe it is the Holy Ghost that protects us from being deceived and allows us to seek out the truth, especially context of the Bible. Many people will make statements about the Bible out of Context, much like it is in Court, where people are question out of context of and not allowed to explain the entire context of what went on. You see this in movies a lot as well, especially movies about Jesus Christ, Noah or Moses. Things are often very skewed and do not follow what it actually says in the Bible. I think the King James Version is the best translation we have, although not all words are properly translated and you have to use discernment and ask for guidance from the Holy Ghost to show you certain things at times.

I guess to finish off here, you will find that all commercial Law is based upon the Babylonian Talmud which the Jews make use of, that is a perverted version of the Torah. It is about master/slave relationship, where the Jews view themselves as God's Chosen People. It becomes obvious to those who read the Bible what their agenda is and why things are the way they are today. I would encourage you to read the Bible and take Jesus Christ into your heart and follow him. As Jesus Christ is the only one offering a way out of this world and into Heaven. No one comes before the father except through Jesus Christ. None of us are free from sin and Jesus Christ ultimately recognizes the cruel and unjust ways of this reality and died on the Cross for our sins. We only have to believe in him and follow him to be saved. Ultimately man may make laws avoid atonement for harm they do to others on earth, but when they pass over in death, there is no one but God to save them from what they did here on earth. If they choose to do evil and not follow God, then God will not grant them an eternal life in heaven with him, for they rejected the only one who loved them and could save them. So hence why the Courts are Secular in nature. They can dish out unjust judgements and support their evil ways in absence of a belief that God exists. What moral boundaries would people have if they felt that they would never be held accountable for the harm they did to others? None I would say and they would run it like a mafia enterprise using fear to keep all their minions in line.
